Sample Curriculum

- EDUC 8110: Advanced Study: Ideas, Issues & Practices in Education
- CPED 8334: Seminar in Research in Curriculum & Instruction
- CPED 6305: Foundations of Curriculum Theory
- CPED 8325: Advanced Ideas in Curriculum Theory
- CPED 8330: Paradigms of Instruction and Assessment
- CPED 8331: Seminar in Instruction
- CPED 8354: Doctoral Internship
- EDUC 6371: Education Policy
- EDUC 6381: Program Evaluation: Theory & Practice

Research Courses:

- EDUC 8120: Group Comparison Designs & Analyses
- EDUC 8122: Qualitative Methods
- CPED 8335: Seminar in Research in Curriculum & Instruction II

9 credits of Electives

Examples of Dissertations

- “Adolescents’ Experiences in an Activism and Global Citizenship Course: An Action Research Study”
- “Teacher Characteristics and School-Based Professional Development in Inclusive STEM-focused High Schools: A Cross-case Analysis”
- “Negotiating Socioacademic Space: The Lived Experience of International Second-Language Students in a Mainstream First-year Writing Course”
- “We Became Teachers: The Influence of Personal Reading on Curriculum Understanding”
- “Advanced Placement Statistics Teaching Knowledge Assessment”

Career Path

- English Language Specialist, U.S. Department of State
- Assistant Professor, University of North Georgia
- Director of Service and Civic Engagement, Edmund Burke School
- Associate Professor of Curriculum & Pedagogy, The George Washington University
- Director of Curriculum & Assessment, Diocese of Camden Catholic Schools

---

You know you want to... Shift the Paradigm

Transformation begins here. gsehd.gwu.edu