Ph.D. Counseling

Sample Curriculum

Counseling Core:
- CNSL6173: Diagnosis & Treatment Planning
- CNSL8252: Advanced Leadership & Advocacy in Counseling
- CNSL8254: Advanced Multicultural Counseling
- CNSL8255: Advanced Supervision in Counseling
- CNSL8257: Advanced Practicum in Teaching
- CNSL8258: Advanced Theories of Counseling
- CNSL8259: Doctoral Internship in Counseling & Counselor Supervision I
- CNSL8260: Doctoral Internship in Counseling & Supervision II

Additional Requirements:
- 2 Human Development Courses
- Research Courses
- 3 Elective Courses

Examples of Dissertations

“Impacts of Depression and Anxiety on an Adolescent’s Concussion Recovery: An Examination of Mediation and Moderation Effects”

“Perception of Alienation From Parents and Peers During the Coming Out Process for Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Individuals and Self-Reported Attachment Classifications: A Preliminary Investigation of the Relationship Between the Attachment System and Rejection due to Sexual Orientation”

“Understanding the Relationship between Culture and Body Image: How do Asian American and Hispanic American Women Construct a Body Image?”

“A Qualitative Study of Gang Dissonance in Former Gang Members”

“The Influence of Interpersonal and Intrapersonal Self-Regulatory Variables on Performance Outcomes of Counseling Interns”

Career Path

Manager, Substance Abuse Outpatient Services of Arlington County
Faculty, The George Washington University
Family Therapist, Georgetown Family Center
Clinical Coordinator, Trinity Washington University
Clinical Instructor, Loyola Maryland University

You know you want to...

Motivate Change