M.A. in Ed. & H.D. International Education

Sample Curriculum
The program allows a selection of courses from a variety of specialization areas. A minimum of 15 credit hours is required in the international education studies area. A 9-credit specialty complements the major area of study and may be taken in any division of the University. Up to 6 additional credit hours of internship may be required for students who do not have international education related experience.

IEP Courses & Topics:
EDUC 6601: Int’l & Comparative Ed
EDUC 6602: Regional Studies in Int’l Ed
EDUC 6610: Policy & Programming
EDUC 6615: Internationalizing U.S. Schools
EDUC 6620: Strategies & Analysis
EDUC 6630: International Experiences
EDUC 6630: Capstone in Int’l Ed
EDUC 6640: Special Topics in Int’l Ed
EDUC 6632: Independent Research
EDUC 6650: Education & National Development

Internships/Field Experience
Recent Internship Sites:
UNESCO Fellows Program
GWU International Services Office
Institute of International Education
National Association of State Boards of Educators
IREX: International Research & Exchanges Board
ISEP: International Student Exchange Programs
NAFSA: Association of International Educators
The World Bank
World Learning
UNESCO Fellows Program
British Councils
GWU Study Abroad Office

Career Path
Alliance for Global Education
Children Without Borders
Marymount International School in Paris
The International Monetary Fund
WorldStrides

You know you want to... Connect

Transformation begins here. gsehd.gwu.edu