

RE-IMAGINING JEWISH LEADERSHIP & EDUCATION

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

12:00 Welcome and Overview

Dr. Erica Brown, Director, Mayberg Center for Jewish Education and Leadership
Dr. Michael Feuer, Dean, Graduate School of Education and Human Development

12:10 Session 1: *Evaluating Jewish Leadership Programs

Dr. Alex Pomson, Managing Director, Rosov Consulting
Ms. Susan M. Kardos, Senior Director, Strategy and Education Planning, AVI CHAI Foundation

1:00 Session 2: *Learning from Leading: Experientially Based Leadership Curricula

Dr. Benjamin M. Jacobs, Director, Experiential Education and Jewish Cultural Arts, The George Washington University
Mr. Mark Young, Managing Director, Leadership Commons

2:10 Session 3: *Problem-Based Learning in Leadership Education

Dr. Hal M. Lewis, President and CEO, Spertus Institute for Jewish Learning and Leadership
Dr. Julia Storberg-Walker, Associate Professor, Human and Organizational Learning, The George Washington University

3:00 Session 4: *Leadership Education by Design

Dr. Jon A. Levisohn, Jack, Joseph, and Morton Mandel Chair, Brandeis University
Dr. Jonathan Woocher, Senior Fellow, Lippman Kanfer Foundation for Living Torah

3:50 BREAK

4:00 Session 5: *The Role of Jewish Texts in Leadership Education

Dr. Elana Stein Hain, Director, Leadership Education, Shalom Hartman Institute of North America
Rabbi Benjamin Berger, Program Director, Wexner Heritage Program, The Wexner Foundation

4:50 Debrief & Closing Remarks